Westview Financial Services (“Westview”) Online Privacy Policy and Terms of Use

Effective 10/31/17

This Online Privacy Policy and Terms of Use covers how Westview treats your information while you interact with Westview through Westview's website, Online Services, and social media sites. By interacting with Westview, through any of these formats you acknowledge and accept the terms of Westview's Online Privacy Policy and Terms of Use. If you do not accept the terms outlined in this Policy, please do not use our Online Services or interact with Westview online.

Our Online Services collect online data. We may collect information about the browser, IP address, device, and operating system you are using. We might look at what site you came from, what you view within our Online Services, and what site you visit when you leave us. We may collect your location using GPS, a cellular network location, Wi-Fi networks, browser services, or information you provide.

Information is collected directly from you. We collect Personal Information you submit to us when you use our Online Services. We also collect information when you complete an online survey. We will collect information when you click a link.

Information is collected passively and some emails may use tracking tools like cookies or pixel tags. We may gather online data about you over time across multiple websites, other platforms, or other mobile apps.

Our Business Partners and Service Providers may give us information about you. Additionally, we may collect information about you when you interact with Westview on social media sites or other third-party websites. Your use of such sites and what information each social media site may share with us is subject to its own privacy policies, terms of use, privacy and advertising settings. Never disclose any personal financial information on any social media site.

Westview cannot guarantee that unauthorized third parties will not be able to defeat our security measures. We ask that you keep your password secure. Please notify us immediately of any compromise or unauthorized use of your account. We do not knowingly or intentionally market to, solicit or collection information from anyone under the age of 18.

We may disclose information when legally compelled to do so. Our consumer privacy policies explain how we treat your information when you are a customer of our financial products and services.
